Local Area

Situated in the historic Ramsay Garden area, set in quiet courtyard surroundings, the apartment is located in, what is considered, the best address in Edinburgh. As a neighbour to the Castle, all the city's amenities and attractions are on the doorstep of this luxury property. Enjoy the wonderful views from the beautiful communal garden or relax on the Royal Mile with a whisky or two.

The property was built by Scottish poet Allan Ramsay in 1740. Originally a wigmaker, Ramsay made his fortune through writing essays and poetry. A man of vision he created the first borrowing library and made books and plays available to the poor residents of the Royal Mile. He was also father to the Scottish artist Allan Ramsay, famous for his portraits of aristocracy such as King George III and the Duke of Argyle (later used on the Royal Bank of Scotland banknotes)

Double Bedrooms

The apartment can accommodate five people, however, can sleep up to eight if required. All bedding and towels are provided.

Kitchen

Fantastic kitchen with all appliances and equipment required to make your stay perfect. Tea, coffee, shortbread biscuits and fresh milk are provided in a modern fully fitted kitchen and breakfast bar.

Bathroom

There is a main bathroom and 1 en-suite. Luxury toiletries are provided.
